Date	Speaker	Topic
April 1, 2014	Glen Shows	Maintaining your Legacy
May 6, 2014	Tim Cupit	TBD

March Meeting

We welcomed Mike Madell, Supt of the park; Bess Averett, chairman of friends of the park; Allen Terrell, Ms Division Commander; and Glen Taylor Beauvoir Board of Trustees to our new meeting room. We also welcomed Past Camp Commander Wooten's son, William to the meeting.

New Meeting Location

March found us meeting in the Disabled American Veteran Building. Wayne has done a wonderful job of leading us into our new "warm" room. He and Joel Bailey worked hard in getting the room set up to support the first meeting. We discussed and continue to look for comfortable chairs. Adjutant Larry Holman is looking into cabinets and book shelves for our books and "stuff". Edward Campbell volunteered to arrange our state flags in the order they left the Union. The building is owned by The local chapter of Disabled Americans Veterans. This organization does not use the building and meets at the VFW. We have agreed to pay the building's utilities in exchange for using the building. It is heated and cooled, has bathroom facilities and has good parking available.

Brice's Cross Roads

Officials at Brice's Crossroads Battlefield near Baldwyn are asking for help in identifying the individuals responsible for damage to the battlefield area. In a news release, residents along Highway 370, CR 833, CR 2848 and CR 503 were asked to report anything they knew about the people "who are responsible for desecrating and destroying property on hallowed ground."

Off-road vehicles are being driven in a reckless manner on property where many men were killed during the Battle of Brice's Crossroads, the release said. The 1500-acre site, which is under the jurisdiction of county and state governments and the U.S. Department of Interior, has been preserved and serves as an interpretive site for the battle fought in 1864. A 150th anniversary observance is planned in June.

Anyone who has information regarding those responsible should call the Interpretive Center at (662) 365-3969.

Work Day

On a Friday, we gathered for a little fellowship and work at our meeting location. We moved the thermostat into the meeting room and hung a lot of our "stuff" on the wall. Our Library remains in boxes at this time.

A Little Local History by Sam Price

As we all know, when the Confederate Army retreated From Big Black River between Bovina and Edwards, Three Small Steam Boats that had being used as Barges were burned. This was in May 1863. They were "the Dot, The Charm and The Paul Jones". The site where they were burned is a short distance downstream from the Rail Road Bridge. The Paul Jones was the Boat that Mark Twain took his Maiden Trip as a Cub Pilot with Mr. Bixby from Cincinnati to New Orleans in about 1857. The Paul Jones later entered Confederate Service and the Three became trapped in the Big Black River as the Yankees maneuvered about.

Beauvoir
(Beautiful to View)
by Joel T. Bailey

Beauvoir, beautiful to view
Beneath the old oak trees
A reminder of the past
And holder of many memories

It stands quiet and stately
And faces out toward the sea
It seems to say to everyone
Please come and visit me

It has been many things
Down through the years
It has heard a child's laughter
And felt a soldier's tears

It was Jefferson Davis's home
The President of the Confederacy
And it was for this reason
It earned a place in history

It was damaged by storms
But arose again like new
And still lives up to its name
Beauvoir, beautiful to view

Confederate Catechism

A new set of questions and answers will be posted each month. It is very important to arm ourselves with facts as the generation who lived it understood it. The following was written by Lyon Gardiner Tyler who was the son of President John Tyler and First Lady Julia Gardiner Tyler, born in Virginia. He graduated in 1875 at the University of Virginia. From 1888 to 1919, he served as the seventeenth president of the College of William and Mary (W&M), and is widely credited for restoring the college's financial condition following the deterioration which took place in the wake of the American Civil War.

2. Was slavery the cause of secession or the war?

No. Slavery existed previous to the Constitution, and the Union was formed in spite of it. Both from the standpoint of the Constitution and sound statesmanship, it was not slavery, but the vindictive, intemperate anti-slavery movement that was at the bottom of all the troubles.

3. Was the extension of slavery the purpose of secession?

No. When South Carolina seceded, she had no certainty that any other Southern state would follow her example. By her act she absolutely shut herself out from the territories and thereby limited rather than extended slavery. The same may be said of the other seceding states who joined her.

4. Was Secession the cause of the war?

No. Secession is a mere civil process having non necessary connection with war. Norway seceded from Sweden, and there was no war. The attempted linking of slavery and secession with war is merely an effort to obscure the issue – “a red herring drawn across the trail.” Secession was based (1) upon the natural right of self-government, (2) upon the reservation to the States in the Constitution of all powers not expressly granted to the Federal government. Secession was such a power, being expressly excepted in the ratifications of the Constitution by Virginia, Rhode Island and New York. (3) Upon the right of the principal to recall the powers vested in the agent; and upon (4) the inherent nature of all partnerships, which carries with them the right of withdrawal. The States were partners in the Union, and no partnership is irrevocable. The perpetuity spoken of in the Preamble to the Constitution was the expression merely of a hope and wish. No rights of whatever could exist without the right of secession.

5. What then was the cause of the war?

The cause of the war was (1) the rejection of the right of secession by Lincoln, and (2) the denial of self-government to 8,000,000 people occupying a territory half the size of Europe. Lincoln himself said of these people that they possessed as much moral sense and as much devotion to law and order as “any other civilized and patriotic people.” Without consulting Congress, Lincoln sent great armies to the South, and it was the war of a President elected by a minority of the people of the North. In the World War, Woodrow Wilson declared that “No people must be forced under sovereignty under which it does not choose to live.” When in 1903, Panama seceded from Colombia, the United States sided with Panama against Colombia in support of Panama’s right to self-government.

Friends of Beauvoir

Beauvoir, the Home of Jefferson Davis is Owned and Operated by the Mississippi Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans. Here is an Invitation to give the Past a Future!

Condition

Beauvoir, A Mississippi Historic Landmark and a National Historic Landmark, was severely damaged by Hurricane Katrina on August 29, 2005. Five of seven buildings on the site were destroyed and the remaining two were damaged, including the house.

Mission

Beauvoir, a Mississippi Historical Landmark and a National Historic Landmark, is dedicated to preserving and interpreting the legacy of American hero and Confederate President, Jefferson Davis and the Southern soldier. Thousands of visitors from throughout the nation and the world annually toured the buildings and landscaped grounds of the historic seaside estate.

Collections

Besides its magnificent antebellum buildings, Beauvoir maintained a large collection of items belonging to the Davis family including furniture, art, textiles, and archival materials. The institution also housed a substantial collection of militaria, including several thousand pieces from the collection of Dr. Francis Lord. Most of those items were damaged.

Recovery

Beauvoir's emphasis has been on restoring the damaged house. However, there are thousands of items in need of conservation and repair. The task is overwhelming.

Importance of Membership

Annual membership in the Friends of Beauvoir is more important now than ever before. At this time, we can offer to your membership such benefits as free year-round admission, 10% discount for Gift Shop purchases, the occasional newsletter, and the tremendous pride of knowing that you helped Beauvoir to recover and continue its mission. Membership in Friends of Beauvoir provides the core support to help keep Beauvoir going. Therefore, won't you please help?

One of the questions I asked at our March meeting to Superintendent Mike Maddell was "Why is the Gettysburg Park Museum so large" The answer was, it all came from money from the friends of Gettysburg Battlefield. The friends of Vicksburg National Park has been established and is seeking membership.

Beauvoir Period Photography

Beauvoir will be offering visitors the opportunity to pose in period clothing with typical props, and appropriate backdrops. All sizes of clothing are needed and any cool prop will be part of the items they can pose with. We think we can price the photo around $15.00 and develop it on site using a camera phone and standard color printer on tan paper for the aged look. If anyone has items useful for this purpose we will certainly appreciate them and one more added income stream will help.

The items can be shipped to :

Confederate Impressionist Needed!!!!

CALL: 228 234-0220. if you are interested!!!!

In an effort to provide a constant authentic period experience to our visitors we NEED re-enactors to camp on the grounds or set up during the day. Any day is fine, we are open every day. The only stipulation we really have is that the re-enactor(s) be willing to engage with the visitors at least part of the time. Ideally, a campsite (whether slept in overnight or not) visible from the highway would be expected to create the draw. An actual sleeping arrangement in the usual quarters would be fine. As we pivot away from the glamour and glitz of the past two years and back to a program focused on education and things families want to see we have to ask our friends now to consider camping with us for our common goal.

Chaplains Corner

For the Brethren:

St. John 20:1-10 tells the story of the resurrection that took place in garden tomb where our Lord was laid following his crucifixion. The Bible tells us that Mary Magdalene had come to the tomb to finish the preparation of our Lord's body for burial as the beginning of the Sabbath observance had precluded her final efforts on his behalf. There was likely concern in her heart over the removal of the great stone that had been set over the entrance, as well as the Roman guard that had been placed there by the governor. When she arrived, she found the stone rolled away and the body missing. She likely witnessed the Roman guard lying on the ground as if dead themselves (St. Matthew 28). In the other gospel accounts (St. Matthew 28; St. Mark 16; St. Luke 24), she was accompanied by two other women when she encountered an angel who commanded her to go and tell the disciples of our Lord's resurrection. Later, upon her return to the tomb, she met the risen Lord who comforted her. The disciples at first did not believe Mary and the other women; but when they pressed their message, Peter and John went to the place only to discover that what they had said was in fact true, and were astonished beyond reason. The guard force had departed, the tomb had indeed been opened, the linen cloth in which our Lord was wrapped for burial was lying separate from the cloth that had been placed over his head. What had transpired would forever mark that moment as the most important event in human history. There is an old spiritual which opens with the words, O happy day as it aptly describes the meaning of Easter for the faithful. And so this month we will celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, whose propitiatory act on the cross at Calvary secured for all true believers everlasting life in God's kingdom. What a gift we were given when his tomb was opened. St. Paul noted in I Corinthians 15:20-22, But is now Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. Indeed, before our coming to Christ, we were dead in our sins and trespasses (Ephesians 2:1). We were without hope (I Thessalonians 4:13). Then Christ Jesus came into the world to save that which was lost (St. Luke 19:10). He came that we might have life and have it more abundantly (St. John 10:10). The agony and the terrible treatment of our Lord had been foretold in both prophecy and in the psalms (Isaiah 52 and 53; Psalm 22). At Calvary, the price for our redemption was paid (Romans 6:23), the Messiah was cut off (Daniel 9:26), he descended into the depths of the earth, and returned bringing with him a multitude of souls and fulfilling the promise of redemption to those of faith under the old covenant (Ephesians 4:8-10). With his resurrection came departed saints who were also seen by many in Jerusalem (St. Matthew 27:52-53). Our Lord's appearance to those on the road to Emmaus; to the disciples that evening while they ate together in fear; and to Thomas some days hence; speaks volumes as to the reason for our Lord's coming into the world— to save sinners. Hear now the words of St. Paul, And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief (St. Timothy 1:12-15). St. Paul was once a devout Jew known as Saul of Tarsus who had sought to round up as many Christians as he could lay hands on. What a shock it was for him to learn that the very God he thought he was serving, he was in fact persecuting. What agony of spirit he must have felt. We know that St. Paul confessed his belief that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, and that he did indeed repent of his sins and trespasses. We also know that afterwards, he lived a new life of obedience: teaching others about God's mercy, grace and love which came through the meritorious life, death and resurrection of his only begotten Son. And so for Christians, the empty tomb has opened the way to a glorious life in the Kingdom of God for all who believe on his name and trust in his atoning work as the Messiah. The empty tomb is his witness and our hope. So then let us go forth in faith for we know that our Lord lives. Let us pray, Father, we thank you that the tomb which held the body of thy Son is an empty one; and give us of thy Spirit, hearts and minds dedicated to witnessing the same to others, that they too might come to know thee the only wise God; for this we ask in the name of him whom Death, Hell and the grave could not hold, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
