

IN THE TRENCHES

FEBRUARY 2021

FROM THE COMMANDER

Edward Campbell

It is almost February and our next meeting will be on Tuesday February 2 at the DAV building at 6 P.M. Our speaker will be Mrs. Joy Redwine, State Leader for the Order of Confederate Rose. She will be talking about the role of the OCR. Please come and bring a friend. We look forward to this very informative talk. I hope that you have all been staying well during these trying times. I feel that life has to go on and I have tried to do all that I can to bring things back to normal as much as possible. At the same time, it is important that we provide a safe atmosphere for our members. We are fortunate at the DAV building to be able to spread out and socially distance and wear mask whenever possible. We do hope that all who feel comfortable coming to the meetings will continue to do so. For those who are choosing to stay away, we certainly understand and please know that we miss you very much and look forward to the day when you can return to us.

Members and guests that attended the Lee-Jackson Dinner on January 23rd at Goldie's in Vicksburg, Mississippi.

being a native of Columbus, let me say that that is no small feat, as it is a 207 mile drive one way from Vicksburg to Columbus. Everyone had a great time at the dinner and I would like to thank all who came and all who helped out. I could not have done it without the help of everyone who participated. In addition to our Camp, we had visitors from the Clinton, Jackson and Brandon Camps, visitors are always welcome.

Speaking of other Camps, as I have mentioned before, if anyone has a program that they would like to present to our friends in the Clinton Camp, or if you know of someone who would be a speaker for them, please let me know. I am friends with the Camp Commander,

*John Clifford Pemberton
Lt. General, CSA.*

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST:

- Next Meeting—Tuesday February 2, 2021
- Spring Flea Market—April 24, 2021
- MS Division Reunion—June 11-13, 2021 at the Vicksburg Convention Center

Ray Williamson and I have given the program there several times. They are a small but friendly Camp who need a little help at this time. They meet the 3rd Thursday of each month at Picantes Mexican on Highway 80. Their next meeting is February 18. Please contact me if you know of someone who could give them a program.

We all look forward to Spring and when I was in the Old Courthouse recently, I was told that the annual Spring Flea Market is April 24. This is one of our Annual events and we always have a booth at the Market. We plan to this year also. If you are able to help out that Saturday, please let me know and be sure and put the date on your calendar. That will also be the weekend of our Confederate Memorial Day ceremony and we will have more details pending soon. Of course, we all look forward to the Division Reunion which we are hosting on the weekend of June 11-13 at the Convention Center. This has been postponed twice but we feel very confident that it will take place this June as scheduled. Please plan to be in attendance that weekend. We need all of you to help us make this a great Convention.

If you haven't purchased a Coin yet, please see Adjutant Larry Holman. This is the beginning of a series that we hope to produce in recognition of the Vicksburg Campaign.

I look forward to seeing all of you on Tuesday Feb. 2. Please be in attendance and help to make Mrs. Redwine welcome.

God Bless you all and God Bless the South,

THE SCV CHARGE POLICY

Compatriots,

We are fast approaching the Reunion season and it has been brought to my attention the SCV Charge Policy had not been shared with you. Below you will find the official policy adopted by the GEC on October 10, 2020 at our last meeting:

It shall be the policy approved by the General Executive Council of the Sons of Confederate Veterans that all its Divisions, camps, and subdivisions or subordinate organizations will incorporate in their Constitutions and or By-Laws the following Charge from Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee and nothing will be added or removed from said Charge to keep it in historical accuracy as published in The Constitution of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

“To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier’s good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.”

Any current or future publications of the said Charge of Lt. General Stephen Dill Lee shall have the Charge as adopted and approved by the General Executive Council of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Unanimously adopted by the General Executive Council on October 10, 2020

God Bless our Southland,

Larry McCluney, Jr.
Commander-in-Chief

THE NATIONAL CONFEDERATE MUSEUM AT ELM SPRINGS

Since 1992, the General Headquarters of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Inc. has been located in Columbia, Tennessee at historic Elm Springs. Built in 1837, Elm Springs is an impressive Greek-Revival mansion situated on nearly eighty acres of rolling farmland.

The membership of the Sons of Confederate Veterans at the 2009 National Reunion at Hot Springs, Arkansas voted in favor of building a museum and at the Headquarters in Columbia. The official ground-breaking ceremony was held in October 2016. Four years later, the building opened to the public and SCV membership on October 10, 2020.

The museum building was designed to resemble a large carriage house, one that might accent the style and age of historic Elm Springs. The interior of the museum features a spacious gift shop and lobby, a research library, and two exhibit halls. The offices of the SCV General Headquarters were also incorporated into the new building. In total, the museum building has 18,500 square feet of usable space with unfinished shell space that can be used for future growth.

No government funding was used in the construction of this building. Nor will government funding will be used in the operation of the museum. This means no politically-correct politician or justice warrior can dictate what can be displayed in the museum or how it shall be interpreted. This museum is owned and operated by the Sons of Confederate Veterans and all of the exhibits will be created by the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Visitors to the National Confederate Museum in Columbia will be given the true history of the War Between the States, not the re-imagined, watered-down versions fabricated by modern "scholars." This museum will bring the Southern War of Independence to life using primary sources and artifacts to illustrate not only how the Confederate Soldier fought, but why.

The exhibit halls are still under construction. Cases are currently being built for the many artifacts awaiting display. 2021 promises to be a big year for the National Confederate Museum.

Take this journey with us. Support the museum as a donor or join the Friends of the Museum today!

SOLDIERS REST

*A soldier of stone stands guard over the resting place of Confederate Heroes.
Soldiers Rest - Vicksburg, Mississippi*

The city of Vicksburg served as a major hospital center in the early years of the Civil War. A section in the Cedar Hill Cemetery was set aside to provide a fitting burial place for Confederate soldiers who died of sickness or wounds. Known as "Soldiers' Rest," the plot in Cedar Hill Cemetery is the final resting place for an estimated 5,000 Confederate soldiers.

A local undertaker, Mr. J.Q. Arnold, was hired by the Confederate government to bury Southern soldiers, and carried out those duties throughout the siege of Vicksburg. Mr. Arnold meticulously maintained records of the soldiers he buried, assigning each one a grave number. Regrettably, his list and map of the cemetery disappeared after the siege, although a portion of his list was re-discovered in the early 1960s, giving the name, rank, company, unit, and date of death for 1,600 soldiers. Approximately 3,500 names are unknown. The document is now part of the archival records at the Old Courthouse Museum in Vicksburg, MS.

Due to the disappearance of Mr. Arnold's records, only a few private headstones marked the plot until 1893. On April 26 of that year, the ladies of the Confederate Memorial Association dedicated a beautiful stone monument featuring the standing figure of a Confederate Soldier. It was not until the early 1980s, following the discovery of the partial list, that the headstones were erected through the combined effort of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Veterans' Administration. The stones were arranged with military precision and placed in state groupings. In 1998, an additional 72 headstones were erected by the Sons of Confederate Veterans to honor soldiers whose identities were established on a second list which surfaced in the collection of the Old Courthouse Museum.

Soldiers Rest also contains memorial markers for those who died at Cooper's Wells in

*"Old Douglas"
Lies Near Soldiers Rest
Vicksburg, Mississippi*

Hinds County, and an effort is being made to honor the lives lost on the CSS Arkansas. Unfortunately, stones could not be placed at the actual resting places for the soldiers in both of these groups, so a decision was made to honor their memory by placing memorials for them in Soldier's Rest.

Discoveries continue to be made about the history of Soldier's Rest. As recently as August 2018, a new list of more than 150 previously unknown soldier and widow burials was discovered and is in the process of being added to the records. Ms. Anna Fuller, in cooperation with several other volunteers, researches and maintains the information about those Confederate heroes who are interred there.

The information that has been collected can be viewed online at soldiersrestvicksburg.com and on Facebook by searching for "Soldiers Rest Confederate Cemetery Vicksburg MS." Soldiers Rest is located inside Cedar Hill Cemetery, 326 Lovers Lane, Vicksburg, MS.

THE UNHOLY TRINITY

By H. V. Traywick, Jr.

Equality of condition among their subjects has been one of the foremost concerns of despotisms and tyrannies since ancient times. - Hannah Arendt, from The Origins of Totalitarianism

Today's political virtue-postings and "hue and cry" against the South's Confederate monuments honoring her soldiers is based upon the specious charges of Treason, Slavery, and Racism. This, however, is "presentism," which is history twisted to conform to present-day politics – in this case to today's racist Progressive Identity Politics. Progressives have taken a page out of George Orwell's 1984: "Who controls the past controls the future. Who controls the present controls the past."

To accuse the Confederacy of treason, one must first wipe one's feet on the Declaration of Independence, signed by the thirteen slave-holding Colonies that seceded from the British Empire in 1776. Lincoln's invasion of the Southern States, which he did not recognize as being out of the Union, is treason according to Article 3, Section 3 of the U. S. Constitution. Self-defense against invasion, conquest, and coerced political allegiance is not. No Confederate was ever tried for treason after the war.

To claim that the Confederacy "took up arms to destroy the Union in defense of slavery" please see above. To claim that the United States waged war against the Confederacy to end slavery, one must ignore not only Lincoln's emphatic disclaimer to the contrary in his First Inaugural Address, but also the fact that his Emancipation Proclamation, issued two years later, stated plainly that slavery was alright as long as one was loyal to his government - proven the following summer when West Virginia, a so-called "slave State," was admitted into the Union.

As for racism, please note that the first "Jim Crow" laws originated in the North. After many Northern States abolished slavery for its inutility in their mercantile economy, the owners sold their slaves South and the States passed "Jim Crow" laws prohibiting any Blacks – either slave or free - from returning. The North's strong objection to slavery in the Territories was based on Northerners' strong objection to Blacks in the Territories. The sainted Lincoln - himself a White supremacist who supported his home State of Illinois' "Jim Crow" laws - worked until the day he died to have the freed Blacks deported to Central America or back to Africa.

As for Black racism, remember that it was Black Africans who captured and sold Black Africans into slavery in the first place. Furthermore, United States Census records in the nineteenth century listed many free Black owners of slaves in both the North and the South – some owning hundreds.

So what was the War "about"? Don't confuse the many causes of secession with the single cause of the war, which was secession itself! The peaceful withdrawal of any State from the voluntary Union of sovereign States would have in no way prevented those remaining from having "a more perfect Union." So what was the real reason for Lincoln's war to "save the Union"? Follow the Yankee dollar and know the Truth. With the South's "Cotton Kingdom" out of the Union, the North's "Mercantile Kingdom" would collapse. So Lincoln – rejecting peace overtures by Confederate diplomats - launched his armada against Charleston Harbor to provoke South Carolina into firing the first shot. South Carolina responded to Lincoln's provocation just as Massachusetts – the self-anointed "Patriot State" - had responded to King George's provocation at Lexington and Concord in 1775.

Virginia, "The Mother of States and of Statesmen," stood solidly for the voluntary Union of 1788 she had given so much to create and perpetuate. But when Lincoln called for her troops to invade and subjugate the Confederacy, Virginia refused, indicted Lincoln for “choosing to inaugurate civil war,” and immediately seceded. Four other States (including occupied Missouri) followed her out. There stands the Truth, not with the North’s “Court Historians” and their mythical “Battle-Cry of Freedom.”

Union at the point of a bayonet is slavery to a despotic government. Confederate monuments speak Truth to this Power. No wonder the Marxist heathen rage and have been incited to rioting, vandalizing, and tearing them down under the approving eyes of “The Party of Big Government” and its handmaidens in the media. And no wonder public schools, colleges and universities – government funded indoctrination centers for “The Myth of American History” – have cast the Truth down the Orwellian “memory hole.”

A native of Lynchburg, Virginia, the author graduated from the Virginia Military Institute in 1967 with a degree in Civil Engineering and a Regular Commission in the US Army. His service included qualification as an Airborne Ranger, and command of an Engineer company in Vietnam, where he received the Bronze Star. After his return, he resigned his Commission and ended by making a career as a tugboat captain. During this time he was able to earn a Master of Liberal Arts from the University of Richmond, with an international focus on war and cultural revolution. He is a member of the Jamestown Society, the Society of the Cincinnati in the State of Virginia, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the Society of Independent Southern Historians. He currently lives in Richmond, where he writes, studies history, literature and cultural revolution, and occasionally commutes to Norfolk to serve as a tugboat pilot.

THE BONNIE BLUE

By Al Benson

Most Southern patriots are familiar with the Bonne Blue Flag and the song that goes along with it. For a long time I had a Bonnie Blue Flag flying at my house.

The history of that flag goes all the way back to the early 1800s all the way back to when Spain and France had a disagreement as to whether West Florida was included in the area each country claimed. When Thomas Jefferson made the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 he sort of inherited the debate. The inhabitants of West Florida were mostly people that spoke English and they were not real happy with either France or Spain, neither of which could deal with them in English.

A revolt took place in West Florida in 1803, led by the three Kemper Brothers. And while it was not successful, it told the Spanish they had better start taking the English-speaking folks in West Florida a bit more seriously. So Spain started dribbling out a few more liberties to them. A second revolt ensued in 1810, led by a Major Isaac Johnson He led a march to the capital in Baton Rouge, which was captured in late September of that year. A new flag was then raised over the fort there, which consisted of a single white star on a field of dark blue. Shortly afterward a Declaration of Independence was passed and the Republic of West Florida came into being. The same flag was then adopted as their national flag.

The Republic was rather short-lived. In late October U. S. President James Madison proclaimed that West Florida was, in reality, part of the Louisiana Territory. The U. S. flag was then raised over the fort, but, by this juncture, the image of the Bonnie Blue Flag had burned itself into the memories of the Southern folks in that area as a symbol of liberty.

When the Republic of Texas came into being a similar flag was adopted, with Texas still being known as the Lone Star State. And in January of 1861, when Mississippi seceded from the Union and established the Republic of Mississippi, another blue flag with a single star was raised in Jackson.

In the audience at that event in Jackson was an Irish actor named Harry McCarthy. He was inspired to compose lyrics pertaining to the flag and he set them to a tune from where he was born. He called his turn The Bonnie Blue Flag.

Some say this became the first flag of The Confederate States, but there is some debate over that. Whether it was accurate or not, the Bonnie Blue became, at least, an unofficial Confederate flag and still is today. The lyrics of McCarthy's tune are still enough, even today, to stir the hearts of Southern patriots. If you want to see or hear the words of the song just go on the net and type in Lyrics for the Bonnie Blue Flag into a search engine. You will probably find several different videos or sets of lyrics for the tune.

Al Benson is the South's best-known Copperhead (Northern-born patriot), a prolific columnist, and the coauthor of Lincoln's Marxists.

WHY THEY FOUGHT

"...who die grandly, gloriously, nobly; dyeing the soil of old mother earth, and enriching the same with their crimson life's blood, while doing what? Only trying to protect their homes and families, their property, their constitution and their laws, that had been guaranteed to them as a heritage forever by their forefathers. They died for the faith that each state was a separate sovereign government, as laid down by the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of our fathers." - The words of CSA Soldier Sam Watkins

JANUARY 1, 2021

RE: 2021 MISSISSIPPI DIVISION REUNION

Dear Mississippi Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans,

The LTG. John C. Pemberton Camp in Vicksburg is honored to host the 125th Reunion of the Mississippi Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans and the 27th Reunion of the Mississippi Society, Order of the Confederate Rose. We have looked forward to this event for some time and have been planning for over two years. The COVID-19 crisis forced us to postpone this Reunion twice last year. We are confident, now that lifesaving vaccines are being administered daily, that we will gather in Vicksburg, the River City on June 11-13, 2021. All events except for the Sunday Memorial Service will be held at the Vicksburg Convention Center downtown.

The Agenda remains basically the same as last year. Registration begins Friday, June 11th from 3 - 7 p.m. at the Convention Center entrance lobby with vendor set up from 2 - 8 pm. The Commanders Reception which will cost $15 per person to attend and begins at 6 p.m. with a cash bar provided. Period music is planned for entertainment along with an exciting talk by famed historian Grady Howell.

The Convention continues on Saturday morning June 12th with our Opening Ceremonies, Business meeting with elections of Division Officers for the next two years, and our Awards Banquet on Saturday evening with keynote speaker Dr. Samuel "Sandy" Mitcham of Monroe, LA. Dr. Mitcham is a wonderful historian and Southern scholar who will be giving a talk on an interesting facet of the Vicksburg Campaign.

Saturday afternoon, for those who choose to return to the Convention Center after a short meal on their own, author Scott Bell, will speak on his book, "The Camel Regiment," A History of the Bloody 43rd Mississippi Volunteer Infantry, CSA 1862-65. Scott will give you more insight into "Old Douglas" that our camp's first commemorative coin was patterned after. Others may want to use the free time for self-guided tours of the Vicksburg Military Park, Old Courthouse Museum, Old Depot Museum, or other historic venues in our city. Local shopping is just a few blocks away from the Convention Center historic Washington Street.

The Reunion ends Sunday morning June 13th with a memorial service at historic Soldiers Rest Cemetery, where memorial gravestones and an historic marker for those who served aboard the C.S.S. Arkansas will be dedicated. Compatriot Bryan Skipworth has spearheaded this on-going project with support from the SCV, UDC and OCR and we are honored to closeout our Reunion with this event. Dr. Brandon Beck of Columbus, MS will be the keynote speaker for this dedication.

I had the honor over 2019 and 2020 to visit a number of SCV Camps and personally invite you to this Reunion. I hope to do the same this Spring, and hope to include some that I did not get to visit last year. We are here to assist in any way, so don't hesitate to call or email me with any questions you might have. Please join us on June 11-13, 2021 for the Reunions of the MS Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the Order of Confederate Rose. Due to scheduling conflicts with the Convention Center, this year's reunion will be held at the same weekend as the Rankin Rough and Ready's Relic Show in Brandon. If you choose on Saturday afternoon to attend the Relic show, it's a quick hour drive to Brandon.

Hotel information with group rates is listed on the registration forms, which are now updated on the Division website, our Camp website and our Camp Facebook page. Each registrant from last year with an email, will receive a registration package by email. Feel free to call me for any additional questions. See you in the River City this June.

Sincerely,

Edward Campbell Commander
